

Vision and Mission

The Community Health Commission of Missouri's deep partnerships and strategic collaborations all drive toward the organization's overarching vision of achieving zero health disparities by promoting equity-centered, trauma-informed care.

Vision

We envision the achievement of zero health disparities.

Mission

We power the connection of community and systems to co-create innovative solutions that yield health equity in all policy and outcomes.

